Funeral Planning Worksheet

Until Jesus returns, all of us will one day die. The most universal fact of human life is that it ends. Although it may be uncomfortable to think about, planning for the end of your life is an act of love and kindness for your family. Planning ahead for your funeral gives your family the gift of helping them through a difficult time by letting them know your wishes.

We encourage you to consider your funeral wishes and take the time to fill out a Planning Form available in the church office. Once completed, we will make a copy for you and keep a copy in the office. When your earthly life is complete, your family will have the gift of your plans to use as they prepare for your funeral. If you have any questions, please give the office a call.

Altar Guild

Altar Guild is in need of a couple people to fill some open spots on guild. If interested, please contact Kelly Zurcher or the church office.

Some are going to watch their team play, others are hoping to watch a certain team lose. Most of us are going to eat way too much, while enjoying time with family and friends.

St. Peter Lutheran has a challenge to submit to you: On the weekend of the big game, will you take a bite out of hunger by throwing 1 dollar in our church Soup Bowl? Imagine the impact we can make locally and globally if each person throws just a dollar in! Half of the donations will be sent to Greene Food Bank, and the other half to Lutheran World Hunger Appeal. We've put a $1.00 challenge down. Can you beat it?

Time to Plan for Summer

It might be winter outside, but summer is coming, and it's time to sign up for camp! Our congregation is fortunate to partner with two different Lutheran camps, Camp EWALU and Riverside Bible Camp. Flyers for both camps are at church.

Wondering what summer camp is all about? It's an awesome experience of playing games, going swimming, doing crafts, and best of all, learning more about Jesus. For older students, there are also a variety of specialty and adventure camps, like ranch camp with horses, music and drama camp, night camp, Boundary Waters canoeing, and even houseboating.

Half-week programs are for kids who have completed grades 1-3, and full-week programs are for anyone who has completed grades 4-12. Camp is such a great opportunity that St. Peter has scholarship money available to help pay for it! Early registration discounts are also available.

Custodian for St. Peter

We are looking for a church custodian to help clean and take care of our building. The position averages 20 hours a week, with starting pay of $12.50 per hour or further discussion. As this is a part-time position, additional benefits are not provided. Essential functions of job require occasionally lifting and moving up to 50 pounds, positioning self to clean under furniture, and occasionally ascending/descending a ladder.

Further information and a full job description are available at www.stpetergreene.com/employment, by inquiring at the church office on a weekday morning, or by calling 641-816-5531. If you know someone who would be a good fit, please pass on the information.

Happy Valentine's Day from LSI!

"We love because he first loved us." 1 John 4:19

Lutheran Services in Iowa's (LSI) mission is about love: responding to the love of Jesus Christ through compassionate service. We give thanks for all the ministry partners, both individuals and congregations, who help share this love for Iowa children, adults, and families!

We see this love in newly adopted children and their families; in teens who are overcoming years of trauma and building bright futures; in Iowans with disabilities who are growing their independence and confidence; in new parents who are raising strong and healthy families; and in so many other moments of joy. You can help carry out our mission of hope and healing by giving a gift and showing love to the Iowa families we serve. ## Faith Vocab: Apostle

In 1 Corinthians 15:9 (our reading for February 5/6), Paul writes “I am the least of the apostles.” Paul’s concerns about his unworthiness are justified. Not only had he not known Jesus during his earthly life, Paul himself had formerly been personally responsible for arresting and harassing many in the early church. But after a life-changing encounter with Jesus (see Acts 9), he switches sides and describes himself as an “apostle.” So what is an apostle?

Literally, an apostle is “one who is sent off.” An apostle is someone sent out with a message to share. Some other words for this idea are “emissary” or “ambassador.” In that sense, all Christians are apostles—we are all sent out to carry the message of God’s love to the world.

More specifically, apostle is used to refer to Jesus’ original 12 disciples, the early leaders of the Christian movement. As Christians today, we identify ourselves as part of the “apostolic” church, meaning that we are in the same tradition of faith as Paul and those first followers of Jesus. We are ambassadors of Jesus, carrying the same message that Paul and the other early Christians proclaimed nearly 2,000 years ago!

Sunday School Sing

The nursery-6th grade Sunday School students will be singing and sharing about what they’ve been learning as part of the 6:00 worship service on Saturday, February 26th. After worship, all students and families are encouraged to stick around for a fun movie night. There will be no Sunday School then on Sunday, February 27th.

Portals of Prayer - Christ in Our Home

Due to the increasing cost of Portals of Prayer, the church council decided that we will no longer be sending them out quarterly to each household. Starting with the next quarter (April, May, June) we will have the daily devotionals Portals of Prayer and Christ in Our Home available to be picked up at St. Peter Lutheran in the fellowship hall.

Biblical Kinds of Love

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.

- 1 John 4:7-8

This month, our culture will celebrate Valentine's Day, a holiday focused on love. Sometimes, though, it's hard to know what we mean when we use that word, "Love." It can have a lot of different meanings! Personally, I love chocolate, I love my dog, I love my job, and I love my wife - but I don't love all those in the same way!

In Greek, the language of the New Testament, there are multiple words for different types of love, all of which English unhelpfully lumps together into the word "love." C.S. Lewis, in a book titled The Four Loves, explored some of these words, and it's helpful to distinguish them as we consider what it means as Christians to talk about God's love for us and for the world.

The first type of love is Storge love. Storge is a natural affection, a love based on fondness, a family love. When Paul tells the church in Romans 12:10 to "Love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor" this is the kind of love he's talking about. It's a sort of baseline appreciation for one another as people created by God.

A related but more intense form of love is Philia love, the bond of friendship. (This is the word from which the city of Philadelphia—the city of "brotherly love"—gets its name.) Often, this is the word used in the New Testament to describe the relationship we are to have as a community of faith. The Holy Spirit unites us in a common purpose, joining us together in love. When the writer of Hebrews says, "Let mutual love continue," this is the word used. As siblings in Christ, we are called to care for each other, to cherish each other, and to lift one another up. We are on this journey of faith together.

A third type of love is Eros (the root of the word "erotic"). This is the type of love most often celebrated on Valentine's Day. It's a love based in passion and desire for another person, a one-on-one relationship kind of love. This is the marital love, the butterflies-in-your-stomach feeling romantic love. "C.S. Lewis viewed eros as having the greatest potential to 'urge evil as well as to good.'" Like all love, eros is a gift from God, and occasionally the Bible uses the passionate language of eros love to describe the relationship between God and God's people (see Song of Solomon), but of course it's also a form of love that's easily abused in selfish ways.

Finally, and most importantly, there is Agape love. Agape love is selfless, unconditional love, shown ultimately by God. Agape is the most common word used in the New Testament to describe God's love. This is the word when Jesus tells his disciples, "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another." Although it's often read at weddings, the "love chapter" of 1 Corinthians 13 uses agape when it describes never-ending, patient, kind, unselfish love. This is the love shown to us on the cross, when Jesus laid down his life for us, and the love we are called to reflect. This is God's love for you!

Your servant in Christ,
Pastor Daniel Flucke
