Parental Leave

As you are likely aware, Christin and I are eagerly anticipating the arrival of Baby Flucke sometime around Christmas (the due date is December 26). Once he makes his appearance, Christin and I will both be taking some time away from St. Peter for parental leave. Church Council has established a policy of four weeks of leave for fathers and six weeks for mothers, so I plan to be on leave for most of January. Coverage is lined up for worship, and local pastors who will be "on call" for pastoral emergencies and funerals. So for any pastoral need you might have after the baby arrives, please call President Kelly Hoodjer 631-330-6644, Vice President Keith Hyman 641-512-1023 or Robin at the church 816-5531.

Annual Reports DUE NOW! Please!

All confirmed members of St. Peter Lutheran Church who have communed and made a contribution of record during the current or preceding calendar year are eligible and encouraged to vote.

This is your opportunity to elect your leaders to represent you on Church Council and to vote on our financial ministry plan for 2020. Read through the congregational annual report, which is available in the fellowship hall.

Church Council Elections January 26th

Thank you to those who have served on the church council! Although often serving "behind the scenes," they have an indispensable role in guiding and managing the ministry of our congregation.

We are especially grateful to those whose terms are ending: Delores Adelmund, Kelly Hoodjer and June Vogelmann. Thank you for your faithful, dedicated service!

The Nominating Committee is still seeking members to serve on the church council. Whether you've served previously or not, prayerfully consider and let the church office know whether this might be a role God to which God is calling you. Council members will be elected at the Annual Meeting:

Christmas Gift Project

Thank you to the Sunday School children, Jr. High and Luther Leaguers for sponsoring gifts for children in our community. Your generosity helps make a very Merry Christmas for several children. Thank you also to those who donated to the Giving Tree for gifts for the children. We were able to purchase many gifts because you gave. We appreciated Nancy Reser and her crew for doing all the shopping. This project would not be possible without your help. God Bless You For Caring. Bev Christensen

Food Bank

Food Bank item for the month of January is Kleenex & Toilet Paper. All donations are appreciated, we can use any food/paper items that are given to us. We are using the "item of the month" as just a suggestion.

Greene Food Bank

I want to say thanks to each of you who has contributed in any way to the Food Bank. The support for our Christmas Children gifts was fantastic, 26 children in our area will have a better Christmas because of you. We have seen an increase in the numbers of people who are using the Food Bank to supplement their grocery needs each month. Also, there has been a corresponding increase in the donations of food and money. This is another way to show our gratitude for all we have been given. The Food Bank will continue to be open the third Saturday of each month from 8:00 - 9:00 AM. I want to wish you all the best in this new year 2020--God's blessings to each one. Jo Ann

Worship Whys: Confessing the Truth

"If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." - Jesus in John 8:31-32

Happy New Year! As I write this column in mid-December, Christin and I are eagerly awaiting the birth of our child. Hopefully, by the time you read this, he will either be here, or his arrival will be imminent! Once he's here, I'll be taking several weeks of parental leave as we adjust to our new normal as a family of three.

While I'm gone, there are several area pastors available for pastoral care - contact the church office if you would like to visit with someone. We also have some excellent guest preachers lined up in my absence. I look forward to seeing you in church when I get back.

For the next several months in this space, I want to explore some of the elements of worship. Worship is at the heart of the Christian life. Worship is our core activity as a church, and it grounds everything else we do. As a community of believers, we gather each week to give thanks for what God's doing in our lives and world, and to hear again and again the fresh message of God's love for us. Fed in worship, we are sent out to share the good news of God's love in our daily lives.

With all that said, sometimes worship can seem like just going through some motions because "we've always done it that way." The language we use in church can be different than our everyday speaking. For worship to be meaningful, it's worth exploring, "Why do we do that in worship?"

For this first column in this series, the key word is confession. Confession is about admitting something to be true. It's the same word as when a criminal owns up to committing a crime. It's about being honest with God and with ourselves. We confess two times during worship services.

First, we begin each time of worship by confessing our sins. Sometimes we use traditional language from the hymnal, and other times the wording is more modern and contextual, but either way, we're admitting who we are as sinful people. We state publicly that we are captives to sin, that as Paul puts it, "I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate." (Romans 7:15) We admit the truth that we can't save ourselves, no matter how hard we try. We need a savior.

Then we hear the words of absolution, declaring the truth of what God has done for us. Because of Jesus, your sins are forgiven. You are set free from your bondage to sin. You are loved.

Later in the service, we confess our beliefs, typically using the language of the Apostles' Creed. These ancient words declare the truth about who God is: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God is the Creator of the cosmos, of all that is. Jesus is God in the flesh who came to live among us, died to save us, and defeated death by rising again. The Holy Spirit is God's presence active in the world.

In concise language, the creed tells about what God has done, and our confident hope that God will continue to act. While the language of the creed is not found in the Bible, it's a simple summary of the truth of God's Word that has served as a baseline to unite the church for centuries. As God's gathered people, we declare our belief that these statements are true. This is what we believe.

-Pastor Daniel Flucke
