"It is the greatest of all mistakes to do nothing because you can only do little - do what you can." —Pastor Sydney Smith (1771-1845)

"Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for bread, will give a stone? Or if the child asks for a fish, will give a snake? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him!" —Jesus in Matthew 7:9-11

Happy Mother's Day!

Mother's Day is a time to celebrate the strong, loving women in your life. At Lutheran Services in Iowa (LSI), we see thousands of Iowa moms through their journey to build the brightest future for their children.

We see moms turning to LSI Behavioral Health Intervention Services to ensure their child is receiving the coping skills and behavioral supports they need to thrive. In our Early Childhood Services, we see first-time moms who are eager to join our parenting education classes and support groups. In 2020, LSI's Early Childhood programs provided support to more than 1,097 families of young children. We are so inspired to hear their stories and see their hard work pay off as they raise our next generation.

As you celebrate Mother's Day this year, remember how many Iowa moms are being empowered because of your support. If you are looking for a way to honor your mother this year, please consider making a gift in her name to LSI. For more information, please contact Deb Whitford, LSI director of philanthropy and church relations, at Deborah.Whitford@LSIowa.org or 563-676-2065.

*Our Mission: Lutheran Services in Iowa responds to the love of Jesus Christ through compassionate service. LSI is an affiliated social ministry partner of the Iowa congregations of the ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) and a member of LSA (Lutheran Services in America). We proudly serve people of all ages, abilities, religions, sexes, gender identities, national origins, ethnicities, races, and sexual orientations. Over 580 shawls have been crafted since 2007 by our church members and 569 given away! This is impressive—the thanks go to all those who have either knitted or crocheted, those who have donated funds for yarn, and the support of the congregation. We are always grateful to have anyone who is interested in becoming active in this service project join us, just let Jo Ann know—we welcome all.

Mission Action

If you are doing Spring cleaning and getting rid of things, please remember our quilting project before you pitch things.

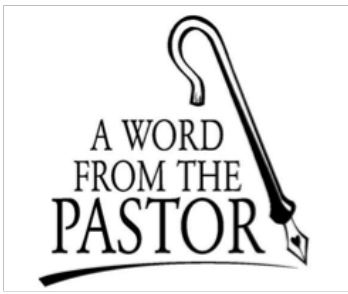

We can use old sheets, pillowcases, blankets, comforters, curtains, drapes, jeans, and of course any kind of material. Even if the items have holes in them, we may be able to make them into liners. AND if you happen to find some crochet thread, regular thread, or yarn, we can use those items also.

With GARAGE SALES coming up, if you are so inclined, we can always use items for the Baby Care Kits -- receiving blankets, baby hats, size 6-24 months light weight boys or girls T-shirts or tops, long or short sleeved gowns or sleepers, jackets, sweaters, or sweatshirts with or without a hood. Also needed: baby socks, hand towels, and bath-size (4-5 oz.) of gentle soap.

Funeral Planning Worksheet

Until Jesus returns, all of us will one day die. The most universal fact of human life is that it ends. Although it may be uncomfortable to think about, planning for the end of your life is an act of love and kindness for your family. Planning ahead for your funeral gives your family the gift of helping them through a difficult time by letting them know your wishes.

We encourage you to consider your funeral wishes and take the time to fill out a Planning Form available in the church office. Once completed, we will make a copy for you and keep a copy in the office. When your earthly life is complete, your family will have the gift of your plans to use as they prepare for your funeral. If you have any questions, please give the office a call.

Vocabulary of Faith

If you speak to people in words they don't understand, how will they know what you are saying? You might as well be talking into empty space. -1 Corinthians 14:9 (NLT)

The single most boring book I read in seminary (or ever, for that matter) was a theological text on the meaning of language. It included one sentence which contained 554 words—and yes, I counted. According to its back-cover description, in this book the author “lays the philosophical groundwork for a practical application of hermeneutics, while constructing an innovative model of theological interpretation developed out of the notions of conversation and argument.” I promise you, I read the book, and I still have very little idea what that description means.

The one point I remember from this book (perhaps the main point of the book, perhaps not—who knows?) is that as human beings, we comprehend God through language. A complete understanding of God is beyond anything we can wrap our puny human brains around, but because we understand the world through words, we are forced to use words to describe God. (John even describes Jesus—God in the flesh—as the Word of God. Jesus is the best way God speaks to us!) Basically, as Christians we need to talk about God, but we should be careful because any language we use for God will ultimately be insufficient.

This is not a new problem, of course. Many of our religious words in English have roots in Hebrew, Greek, or Latin, because God's people have been using words to talk about God since creation. Christians have been trying to understand and explain what God has done in Jesus for almost 2,000 years now. And as in many fields, we've come up with some precise words in order to articulate what we believe about God.

The challenge is that the beautiful language refined over centuries of use by the church can be confusing to newcomers. Instead of making clear what we believe, some of our “insider language” is meaningless even to those of us who have been raised in the faith.

As I see it, if we want the way we talk about God to be intelligible, we have two options—and they're not exclusive. One option is to intentionally use “normal” language. Since no description of God is perfect anyway, we might as well try to describe God in ways everyone can understand. If a word has lost its meaning, by all means, let's stop using it. We are here to spread God's love, not to confuse people!

Of course, church language (what I'd call the “vocabulary of faith”) developed for a reason. Young children learn to read books written from a limited word bank, but those words eventually become too limiting for the stories we read beyond kindergarten. Sometimes we need precise language with precise meanings. So, the second option I see is to teach the meaning of our faith vocabulary. When I use church-specific words in sermons or writing, I'm going to try to be better about explaining what they mean. In addition, starting in this newsletter, I also plan to have a monthly “Faith Vocab” word section defining a church word. I hope you find it helpful!

-Your servant in Christ,
Pastor Daniel Flucke

Faith Vocab: Gentile

On May 8/9, our Scripture reading from Acts 10 includes the word "Gentile." So, what is a Gentile? Basically, a Gentile is anyone who is not Jewish.

In the Bible, the Jewish (or Hebrew) people are the descendants of Abraham, and God chooses them and blesses them in order that they might be a blessing to the whole world. God's chosen people are charged with following the laws given by God through Moses, and given the land of Israel as their promised homeland. Jesus and all his disciples are Jewish.

In contrast, everyone else in the world who is not a Jew is a Gentile—most likely including you. Through Jesus, God expands salvation to include the whole world—Gentiles as well as Jews. In Acts 10:45, the Jewish believers marvel that "the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles." Thanks be to God!

graduating seniors!

We'll miss you, and pray God's blessings on whatever the future has in store for you!

Please wear your gown to 9:30 worship on and prayed over by your church family.

We will be celebrating the end of another school year at Ninja U in Cedar Falls!

Luther League youth will be going
Sunday, May 2nd at 12:30 pm and Jr. High youth will be going
