

Confirmation Week 3

Name: _____

Vote for Mo!

Part 1:

For the past several months, we've been flooded with campaign advertisements for various political candidates on tv, in the mail, on people's lawns, etc. Everywhere you look you'll see someone's opinion on what kind of leaders and policies will be best for our city, state, and nation.

Now it's your chance to get in the race!

Your homework is to design a campaign poster for the ideal candidate to lead a nation out of a tough time. Give your candidate a name and make a list of the qualities he or she must have in order to be a good leader. You may also come up with a clever campaign slogan and draw a picture of your leader.

IMPORTANT: YOU ARE CREATING A FICTITIOUS CANDIDATE, NOT ENDORSING ANY CURRENT POLITICIAN, CELEBRITY OR FAMILY/FRIEND. YOUR CANDIDATE IS NOT A REAL PERSON!

Bring your completed campaign poster to the next confirmation class with you.

Part 2:

One of the most influential and important leaders in the Bible is Moses. Look up these passages about Moses, and write down what character traits Moses has according to each one.

After Joseph's time, the Hebrew people (aka the Israelites) lived in Egypt, where they became slaves to the Egyptians. One Hebrew baby named Moses was hidden in a basket in a river. Pharaoh's daughter found him and adopted him. He was raised as a prince in Pharaoh's household, but God had other plans for him...
